

Our Knowledge is Power:

The Cultures of Beauty and Survival in Isle de Jean Charles, LA and Shishmaref, AK

September 9-30, 2023

Taplin Gallery, Arts Council of Princeton | Downtown Princeton, NJ

Artist Dennis Davis and Chantel Comardelle have partnered to bring us a multimedia exhibit showcasing the beauty of culture and the price of the climate crisis. The stunning images will introduce you to their communities and sacred traditions.

Gallery Hours:

Mon-Thurs: 9am-5pm

Fri & Sat: 10am-4pm

Sun: 9am-1pm

Opening Reception:

Saturday, September 9 | 3-5pm

Artist Talk & Film Screening:

Friday, September 22 | 4-7pm

Exhibition sponsors:

High Meadows Environmental Institute, Program for Community Engaged Scholarship (ProCES), Princeton Department of History, Princeton Department of Anthropology, Princeton Mellon Initiative in Architecture, Urbanism & the Humanities, Fluid Futures Forum, Environmental Humanities and Social Transformation Colloquium, Lewis Center for the Arts, Native American and Indigenous Studies Initiative at Princeton, NSF Grant #1921045: Adaptations to Repetitive Flooding: Understanding Cross-Cultural and Legal Possibilities for Long-Term Solutions to Flooding Disaster, Center for Policy Research on Energy and Environment (C-PREE)

ARTS COUNCIL OF PRINCETON

Paul Robeson Center for the Arts
102 Witherspoon Street, Princeton NJ
artscouncilofprinceton.org

Learn more